BRYAN FAVORS A SECOND TERM

Wrote Letter Favoring Exemption for Wilson, Says Carlin

DETAILS MAY FOLLOW.

Commoner's Failure to Deny Report That He Will Raise One-Term Issue Deemed Significant.

Washington, July 8—The fact has come to light that former Secretary of State William J. Bryan is on record as favoring the exemption of President Wilson from the one-term pledge of the Baltimore platform.

This is the pledge which Mr. Bryan will invoke, it has been declared, in an effort to prevent the renomination of the President when the next Democratic National Convention assembles.

Representative Carlin, of Virginia for a time acting chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, in a statement made it clear that a letter from Mr. Bryan is on file which will prevent the Commoner from raising the one-term issue. Mr. Carlin has just returned from Annapolis, where he has been appearing before the court of inquiry at the Naval Academy.

"President Wilson will be renominated and re-elected," said Mr. Carlin. "The Republicans have no man to match him and I expect him to have an easy return to the White House. I do not expect any opposition to him within his own party and I know no man whom the Republicans can bring out who would be big enough in the opinion of the country to cope with him as a candidate.

"I believe Mr. Bryan will warmly support the President for re-election and I am sure he is being misrepresented as for his views on the one term plank, for I happen to know that after that plan was adopted and while the one- term constitutional amendment was pending before the Judiciary Committee of the House, the Senate having passed it unanimously, Mr. Bryan wrote a letter to the committee which will forever preclude him from attempting to either embarrass or oppose Mr. Wilson on that ground. In justice to Mr. Bryan and to all parties concerned I may give the details of the latter to the public later on."

At the time the constitutional amendment to which Mr. Carlin refers was under consideration it was generally understood that Mr. Bryan had gone on record as opposing any enactment that would prevent President Wilson from aspiring to a second term. The statement today, however, is the first direct information to that effect which has come from inside the Judiciary Committee.

It is regarded as significant, on the other hand, that Mr. Bryan has permitted to go undenied for 10 days the statements attributed to him to the effect that he would raise the one term issue in opposition to the President's renomination.

SNAKE TICKLES HIS EAR

Safety First Suggested Leap, Then Farmer Came Back

Readville, Pa., July 8—Feeling his left ear tickled, Simon Reming, a farmer, who was driving a reaper, turned his head and looked into the eyes of a seven-foot black racer, which had coiled about the wheel and was licking his ear with its forked tongue.

Roming cleared the eight-foot cycle bar at a sitting broad jump. Then he snapped the head from the reptile with a blow of his whiplash, a practice common among teamsters and nature fakers.

IN AMERICAN WATERS

Reported Plan to Operate Submarines Off Canada.

Washington, July 8—State Department officials view with great concern a plan said to be under consideration by the German navy to establish a submarine base off the coast of Canada.

The department is convinced that Germany now has submarines easily capable of making the trip from Wilhelmshaven to the Canadian Coast, but without a base of supplies on this side of the ocean these submarines would be starved into surrender.

It is admitted by the department that the establishment of such a base for an attack on shipping from Canadian ports would be far different in its legal aspects from the German and English naval warfare off the coast of South America. It was declared it would be as much an invasion of the North American continent by an European power as was the French invasion of Mexico, which was ended by an American warning.

CATHEDRAL BURNED

Ancient Edifice in Arras Fired by The German Shells

Berlin, July 8—According to the German official report in a night attack upon Arras, the town took fire from shells and the cathedral was burned.

The cathedral at Arras, which is the capital of the French Department of Pas de Calais, was built in 1755-1833. When the war broke out the cathedral contained some good painting including a descent from the cross and an entombment, attributed respectively to Rubens and Van Dyck In the south transept was a St. Bernard supplicating nspiraton from Heaven by Van Thulden. A bas-relief in gilded bronze adorned the altar.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT

Fourteen Persons Killed and Score Injured in Canada When Car Jumps Track

Queenstown, Ontario, July 8.—Fourteen persons were killed and a score injured yesterday evening when a trolley car on the International Railway's line jumped the track at a curve on the sharp incline leading from Queenston Heights into the village and rolled down a steep embankment. The car was carrying a crowd of Toronto excursionists to the boat landing here.

The car was so completely crushed that the work of extricating the injured was distressingly slow. There were about 35 passengers on the car, and only one or two escaped injury. Eight dead were taken from the wreckage, and two of the injured one of them a girl of 16, died while being carried from the car to the ambulance at Niagara Falls.

CAR LINE TO NORFOLK

Surveyors Now at Work in Maryland Laying Out Route

Surveyors are at work in Maryland laying out a track for the proposed electric car line between Washington and Norfolk. The line is to run for a considerable distance along the Maryland side of the Potomac River. Channing Ward, of Richmond is mentioned as in charge of the enterprise, and it is said that ample capital is backing the proposition.

Reports from Charles County, Md., state that the right of way has been secured and that ground will be broken about July 15. The lane will pass from Charles County to Prince Georges county on a route that will bring it near Fort Washington. From there it will proceed to Shepherds and thence to Washington.

FIVE SHIPS SUNK

Sebastopol, July 8—The Russian Black Sea fleet sank five Turkish sailing vessels and four galleys carrying coal and heavily bombarded a hostile submarine off the Bosphorus, it is officially announced.

The coal vessels were sent to the bottom off the port of Zunguldak.

"Our destroyers directed a heavy and accurate fire against an enemy submarine which fired a torpedo fruitlessly." said the official statement. "The submarine dived and its fate is unknown."

MANY KILLED BY A TORNADO

High Winds Strike Ohio, Indiana and Other States Last Night

DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

Railroad Passenger Cars Blown From Track and Down Embankment—Loss Will Reach $1,000,000.

Cincinnati, July 8.—Passengers coming to Cincinnati today on a Louisville and Nashville train from Louisville, said the storm in Louisville did less property damage than earlier reports indicated and so far as they knew nobody was killed or seriously injured.

They said Hendersonville, Ky., according to rumors in Louisville, was struck by two cyclones and there was considerable damage.

Cincinnati, July 8.—Forty reported dead, more than a score known to be missing, scores injured, many buried under the ruins of buildings and in the hulks of steamboats that sank—that is the toll of the tornado that swept Cincinnati last night.

The tornado destroyed hundreds of plate glass store windows and outside showcases.

It ripped the heaviest signs from their fastenings.

It turned over automobiles standing on the street.

It uprooted hundreds of trees.

It is the greatest disaster that has ever befallen Cincinnati.

Four coaches of a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train were blown from the track and rolled down a steep embankment at Beechmont Linwood, a suburb.

Three bodies were taken from the crushed coaches and sixteen seriously injured were rushed to hospitals.

Police and fire departments have been so busy digging for the dead and injured that no accurate count has yet been made of financial loss It is thought it will come close to $1,000,000.

Dozens of buildings were blown down. Two of them, three blocks apart, were inhabited by members of the same family, most of the members of which are now thought to be dead.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 8—Twelve persons are dead and more than a dozen are buried in the wreckage of buildings at Cincinnati, following a tornado late yesterday.

Eight buildings in the city are known to be destroyed and it is believed that the life and property loss in small towns surrounding Cincinnati is great.

Vincennes, Ind., July 8—Two persons were killed and property estimated at $500,000 was destroyed by a terrific cyclone at Lawrenceville Ill., late yesterday. Fifty houses were shattered by the twister, and the village is practically in ruins.

Terre Haute, July 8—Lawrenceville, Ill., 50 miles south of Terre Haute, was visited by a terrific windstorm late yesterday. Two persons are reported to have been killed and more than 50 houses were destroyed It is estimated the damage will exceed half a million dollars4.

Rock Island Ill., July 8—A cloudburst here last night flooded basements in the business section and in some instances submerged first floors. Considerable damage was done to merchandise, and the property loss was heavy.

St. Louis, Mo., July 8—Reports that St. Peters, Mo., 30 miles north of here was razed by a tornado today and that several score persons were killed reached here last night, but verification was impossible at 8 o'clock, as every telephone and telegraph wire into the town was down.

A tornada struck St. Charles, Mo., 25 miles northwest of here at 5:20 o'clock in the afternoon. It was reported that the storm razed a district 18 blocks long and 14 blocks wide, that two large churches were destroyed and that the Wabash bridge across the Missouri River was damaged.

As far as known no lives were lost. St. Charles Borromeo's Roman Catholic Church, built at a cost of $100,000 was wrecked, storm tearing out the east and west walls and cracking the south walls so that it crumbled.

A wall and part of the roof of St. Joseph's Hospital were torn away. The panic-stricken patients were removed to safety.

Four cars of Wabash passenger train No. 9 from St. Louis to Kansas City, were blown from the track by a tronado near Gilmore, Mo., this afternoon, but no one was hurt badly enough to need medical attention.

Mr. Cotter said the mail, smoking, dining and chair cars were blown clear of the right of way. The train crew then coupled up five cars which held the track and proceeded.

ITALY SEEKS GAS

Contracts for Liquid Chlorine in Metal Cylinders; Short Some 20,000 Tons.

New York, July 8—That Germany is not to be allowed an undisputed monopoly in fighting its battles with asphyxiating gases is made apparent through the appearance of advertisements in local newspapers calling for bids for supplying machinery for its manufacture and for experts to prepare the deadly stuff for contractors for the Italian government.

A. G. Dal-Brun, of the Hotel San Remo, who is responsible for the advertisements, readily admitted that he has been shipping liquid chlorine in metal cylinders for some time, but said he was still short 20,000 tons. It has been found impossible to liquefy it successfully in Italy.

American manufacturers who make it under license from German patentees for use in laundries, bleaching cotton goods. etc., are for the most part under contract not to supply the product for export. A ton per mile Dal-Brun said, is necessary to accomplish results. In view of this demand for man- killing purposes laundry liquid chloride has risen from five cents a pound to eight and a half and the metal cylinders have soared to $100 each.

Among the other war supplies the Italian representative is seeking is a few tons of magnesium—the material the photographer employs to smudge up your place when he makes a flashlight. It ignites so readily and burns with such intensity while emitting a brilliant white light that it is used both for incendiary bombs and illuminating bombs. As the American supply is obtained almost entirely from Germany it is all but exhausted and the price has multiplied four times during the progress of the war. Italy probably will have to find a substitute.

FIRE ON ATLANTIC LINER

Atlantic Transport Steamer Minnehaha Racing to Port

New York, July 8—With a heavy cargo of amunition, the big Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha is racing back to Halifax today with a blaze in one of her holds. She should reach there tomorrow morning.

A wireless message from Capt. F. S. A. Claret late last night reported the steamer 570 miles east of Halifax, and said that the blaze was not serious and had been confined to her No. 3 hold.

Officials of the line withheld the news that the liner was afire until 10 a. m. today.

They stated then that they had received no further information from Captain Claret, but that they were certain the liner was in no great danger.

Despite this statement concern was felt in shipping circles for the Minnehaha's safety because of the possibility that the flames might reach her great cargo of explosives.

The Minnehaha cleared from New York at 3 p. m. on Sunday for Liverpool.

Charles Landrum, who resides in Hampton, narrowly escaped being killed Tuesday afternoon when he was struck in the head with an axe by his small brother, Albert Landrum, and dangerously wounded. The two boys were in the yard of their home chopping wood. Albert was using the axe and little Charles ran under him. The butt end of the axe struck the boy in the forehead.

TEUTON DRIVE ON WARSAW HALTED

Russian Reinforcements Check Enemy Near Lubin Railway

ARRAS IS IN FLAMES

Cathedral Destroyed as Result of German Bombardment—Teutons Lose Heavily.

London, July 8—By the employment of strong reinforcements the Russians have temporarily at least checked the Austro-German advance toward the Lublin Railway, which, if successful, would seriously imperil Warsaw.

The Russians claim to have inflicted a serious defeat on the Austro-German Army in the region of Krasnick, south of that railway, while the Austrians tonight state that "the battle was invigorated by the participation of strong Russian reserves."

So far as communications are concerned the Russians now have the advantage of positions, as they have a splendid system of railway behind them on which they can quickly move troops and guns to the threatened areas.

This battle, one of many since the Austro-Germans commenced their drive through Galicia, has only just commenced, but according to dispatches received in Geneva from Austrian sources the Russians have thus far had the best of it and since Monday have inflicted very heavy losses on the invaders. These dispatches state that thousands of wounded are continually arriving in Lemberg, Przemysl and Jaroslau.

The much-heralded German onslaught in the West thus far has been confined to the Woevre region, where the army of the German Crown Prince is on the offensive and making efforts to regain the ground which it lost to the French in April, when the latter attempted to force the withdrawal of what is known as the St. Mihiel wedge. The Germans have won some trenches at the tip of the wedge, but at other points according to French accounts, they were repulsed with heavy losses.

Artillery combats continue from Arras to the sea and it is stated that as a result of the German bombardment Arras is in flames and its cathedral destroyed.

MURDER IN NORTH CAROLINA

Slayer Objects to Man Talking With His Wife

Elizabeth City, N. C., July 8—News has reached here that Cale Forbes was shot and instantly killed by Ben Hewett at the latter's home a day or two ago. Forbes who lived about three miles from the Hewett home, came up to the house and was talking to Mrs. Hewett through the kitchen window when Hewett appeared on the scene and ordered Forbes off the premises. Hot words ensued and Forbes, who is a man of considerable physical strength is reported to have threatened to tear Hewett limb from limb. At any rate, Hewett picked up a shot gun and standing barely six feet away from Forbes fired, the load entering the man's body below the left breast and tearing a great hole through his ride.

Mrs. Hewett was formerly Mrs. George Sawyer. She was divorced by her first husband, who married again after she left the state with Hewett.

Hewett was arrested and carried to Camden. He was held to Superior Court and released on $250 bond.

Forbes is survived by his wife. He had no children.

JEWS IN PALESTINE

Turks Assert They Have Been Accorded Good Treatment

New York, July 8—The best of treatment has been accorded the Jews in Palestine by the Turkish authorities since the outbreak of the war, declares a statement by the Turkish Embassy given out through the Consulate here. It recites that Hebrews "of hostile nationality established in Palestine" have been given all facilities for acquiring Ottoman citizenship, and that the greater part of them took advantage of the permision, while others left the territory of their own volition without pressure from any source.

A very small number, the statement says while wis ghnniiotgreatnment says, while wishing to retain the nationality of the country in which they were born, refused to leave "under the pretext of not having sufficient means at their disposal to pay their passage." These, it is added, were put on board steamers by the police authorities, who adjusted payment for transportation with the steamship companies. Their embarkation was orderly "and without any of them having been exposed to the least injury or inscult." —

The German and Spanish consuls, the statement concludes, were present at the embarkation and "have been able to ascertain personally" that none of the departing persons were ill-treated.

ROBBERS HOLD TOWN AT BAY

Four Battle Off People While Three Try to Blow Safe

Little Rock, Ark., July 8—Seven bank robbers early yesterday engaged in an hour's hot pistol battle with more than one hundred citizens of England, Lonoke county, near here, drove their attackers into the main hotel of the town, after failing to dynamite the safe of the Bank of England, and then escaped in an automobile. N. W. Whitlock, town marshal of England, was wounded seriously in the fight.

Three members of the gang made five unsuccessful attempts to explode the bank safe, while the other four stood outside and by a continuous fire held off the townspeople. The robbers got away with about $200 from the tills in the cashier's cage.

ITALIAN CRUISER SUNK

The Amalfi Torpedoed in The Upper Adriatic

Rome, July 8—The Italian armored cruiser Amalfi was torpedoed and sunk in the upper Adriatic yesterday morning by an Austrian submarine, it is officially announced.

The Amalfi is the first large fighting ship lost by either side since the beginning of the Austro-Italian war

Dispatches to the ministry of marine today said the majority of the crew of about 684 men were saved The cruiser was attacked while on scout duty.

The Amalfi was one of the newer of the Italian armored cruisers. She was launched in May, 1908, and displaced 9,958 tons. She carried four 10-inch and eight 7.5-inch guns and had a speed of 22.5 knots.

FIND BOMBS ON SHIPS.

In Each Case Placed Aboard Vessel Carrying Autos And Other Supplies for French Army.

New York, July 8.—Three ships sailing from this port to Havre, and reaching there last May, it was learned from an authoritative source yesterday, were found to have unexploded bombs aboard, placed there in this city before sailing.

In each case, it was said, the bombs had been placed aboard a vessel carrying automobiles and other supplies for the French army.

DEFEAT TURKS IN FIERCE BATTLE

Forces Hurled Against Right Wing of Invaders Wiped Out

SUCCESS OF ALLIES

One of the Most Energetic Engagements That Has Taken Place in the Attempt to Enter Dardanelles

London, July 8—The Turkish forces completely failed in the big attack which they began on July 4, against the Anglo-French forces on the Dardanelles, according to a statement issued by the official press bureau, which added that the Turks lost heavily. The statement says:

"General Sir Ivan Hamilton reports that the night of July 3-4 was quiet in the northern section, but at 4 A. M. the enemy started a heavy bombardment of the trenches. All the guns used previously against us and some new ones were in action, but the bombardment died away about 5 P. M. without doing much damage. During the bombardment about 20 11.2 inch shells were dropped from a Turkish battleship in the Straits.

"In the southern section the Turks kept up a heavy musketry fire along the whole line during tne night, and did not leave their trenches. At 4 A. M. their batteries started the most violent bombardment that has yet been experienced. At least 500 rounds of artillery ammunition were expended by them.

"Meanwhile this shelling of our lines on the peninsula proved the preliminary to a general attack on our front with special efforts at certain points. The principal effort was made at the junction of the Royal Naval Division section with that of the French.

"Here at 7:30 A. M., the Turks drove back our advance troops and assaulted a portion of the line held by the Royal Naval Division. Some 50 Turks gained a footing in our trenches, where nevertheless, some men of the Royal Naval Division held on to our supports and the men who had retired countre-attacked immediately and hurled the Turks out of the trench again.

"Another attack on the right of the Twenty-ninth Division section was practically wiped out by rifle and machine gun fire. On our left the Turks massed in a nullah, to the northeast of our newly-completed trenches, and attempted several attacks. None of these was able to get home owing to the steadiness of our troops and our effective artillery support. The bombardment died down toward 11 A. M., though it was resumed at intervals.

"Not only was the result a complete failure, but while our losses were negligible and no impression was made on our line, the enemy added a large number to his recent very heavy casualties.

IMPRESSIVE EXERCISES

Large Gathering Witness Laying of Cornerstone of New High School Building.

The lot of the new Alexandria High School was filled to overflowing last evening at seven o'clock when the exercises incident to the laying of the cornerstone of the new building took place. The official guests were the members of the City Council and of the school board, together with other city officials. The ceremonies were conducted by the Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, who delivered in an impressive manner the ritual which is used by the Masons on such occasions. City Engineer Emmett C. Dunn, who is in charge of the construction of the new building was present and was highly congratulated on the efficient progress that has been made in erecting the structure.

The parade of the Masons to the site of the building started at the Masonic Temple on Cameron street, a delegation from Old Dominion Commandery, No. 11, Knights Templar, acting as an escort and a detail of police under Chief Charles T. Goods and the Lone Star Camp, American Indian Guard Band, leading the procession. Upon arrival at the site the Masons and Knights were seated upon a stand which had been erected for the occasion at the northeast corner of the building where the cornerstone was to be placed. The stand was decorated in an appropriate manner and the Masons in their aprons, which is the insignia of their fraternity, and the Templars in their resplendent uniforms with their white plums waving in the breeze furnished a scene long to be remembered by those present.

The historic trowel, which was used by George Washington, first master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, in laying the cornerstone of the national capitol, was again brought into play, being wielded in last night's cermonies by Charles E Tenneson, worshipful master.

Prayer by the Rev. Dr. James Norse marked the opening of the exercises, which were ended shortly after the reciting of the ritual and the chanting of hymns by members of the lodge, with a short address by Judge Charles E. Nicol, who spoke, among other things, upon the value of a public school education to every child of school age in the community and upon the value of a public school building as a common meeting ground for a city's citizens.

"I believe," said the speaker, "that every child of school age should be compelled to attend school, and a public school at that, for what is the use of the community going to the heavy expense of erecting large buildings and providing excellent facilities for education if the youth do not take advantage of the opportunities afforded them." "I believe," he repeated," that children should be made to attend a public school, because there they meet each other on common ground and are given equal opportunities for learning and developing. I believe also that in a public school the church and state should be entirely separated. The Holy Bible, if it were possible, should be put into all our schools, but no sects or denominations should exist there."

Judge Nicol thus expressed his views on the immense value afforded by the public school and voiced his disapproval of allowing class sect or denominational divisions to creep into the routine of the school work or to permeate the school atmosphere with its rivalries and discord.

Judge Nicol in his address paid a worthy tribute to Alexandria-Washington Lodge and spoke upon the significance of the connection of the first cornerstone that of the Alexandria Academy, laid by the Alexdria-Washington Masons one hundred and thirty years ago and the cornerstone put into place last night, both the first one and the present one being, he said, laid to commemorate the cause of education. Judge Nicol referred to Washington as the pioneer of the education of the youth in this country, "the father of his country" being one of the trustees and patrons of the old Academy.

Construction on the top story has been started on the new building, and it is expected to be ready for occupancy about October 1st. The cost of the new structure, when completed, together with the site, which includes about a square block of land, will approximate $50,000.

TRANSCONTINENTAL CONVERSATIONS.

Though Governor Henry Carter Stuart will be in far-off San Francisco tonight, his voice will be heard in the Jefferson Hotel Auditorium, Richmond, through the medium of the transcontinental telephone.

Today will mark the exercises of Virginia Day at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and the cross-country talk will be the event contributed by the telephone company to the day's program.

Governor Stuart will send his greetings to the people of the Commonwealth from the Pacific coast and will receive the felicitations of Lieutenant Governor J. Taylor Ellyson and Secretary Alexander Forward. After the Governor has exchanged greetings with the State officials in Richmond, other members of his party in San Francisco will exchange messages with friends in Richmond. Opportunity will be afforded others to hear the conversations that span the continent and to converse with San Francisco.

While the Governor is connected over the transcontinental telephone with friends in the auditorium of the hotel tonight, he will hear Mrs. Hamilton Smith, of Richmond, sing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia."

Governor Stuart has accepted the invitation of the Bell Telephone Compan to open its new commercial transcontinnetal telephone line from Los Angeles to New York. This will take place next Wednesday, next when the Governor's party will be in Los Angeles en route from San Diego to Yellowstone National Park.

The first transcontinental talk was made in April when President Wilson at the White House sent his memorable message to President Moore, of the exposition. In New York city Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, whose invention made the conversation possible, was on the wire at the time and chatted with the President.

The cost of commercial conversations from Boston to San Francisco will be $21.2 for three minutes, and the rates from other cities will be in proportion.

The prophecy of the poet concerning the girdling of the planet has long since been fulfilled, but the wonders witnessed daily by the present generations do not appeal to them as they do to others still in the land of the living whose early years were spent under different conditions. A copy of the Alexandria Gazette printed in 1856 is now before us. Anarticle in the issue is headed "California Advices." It had taken three months to get the news from that state to Alexandria. It requires about as many minutes now.

LAYING OF THE CORNERSTONE.

As had been anticipated, there was a large assemblage at the northwest corner of Cameron and West streets late yesterday to witness the ceremonies in connection with the laying of the cornerstone of Alexandria's new high school building. The order of exercises as printed in yesterday's Gazette was carried out in an impressive manner. The temperature was pleasant, a fresh southeast breeze prevailing, and the ceremonies were studied with interest by the large gathering and the address of Judge C. E. Nicol listened to attentively.

A new high school building had for several years been the urgent desire of a large majority of our people. The movement was pushed until the lot was eventually purchased. But there were impediments which had to be surmounted. There were objections upon the part of a few people to the location selected for the new edifice, it being urged that the ground which had been acquired was partly in Alexandria city and partly in Alexandria county. This objection was quickly brushed away last March when by a decision of the Court of Appeals the city was given almost all the outlying territory for which it had contended in the annexation proceedings in the Circuit Court for Alexandria county. When the dimensions of Greater Alexandria were studied it was found that the site of the new school building is in centre of the enlarged city and that a century ago a thoroughfare was laid out which our ancestors designated "Centre street"

The new building is now in an advanced stage of construction, and as it mounts higher and higher is viewed with a natural pride by all citizens.

DICKENS AND THE NEW TESTAMENT.

Charles Dickens was a firm believer in the New Testament, and in his will a paragraph appeared in which he enjoined his children to read it closely and endeavor to follow its teachings in their broadest construction without heeding the comments of any one.

When his son went to Cambridge the novelist wrote:

"As your brothers have gone away one by one I have written to each of them what I am now going to write to you. You know that you have never been hampered with religious forms of restraint and that with mere unmeaning forms I have no sympathy. But I most strongly and affectionately impress upon you the priceless value of the New Testament and the study of that book as the one unfailing guide in life. Deeply respecting it, and bowing down before the character of our Saviour, as separated from the vain constructions and inventions of men, you cannot go very wrong, and will always preserve at heart a true spirit of veneration and humility. Similarly I impress upon you the habit of saying a Christian prayer every night and morning. These things have stood by men all through my life."

"THE WORLD IS GOVERNED TOO MUCH."

The Maryland legislature was condemned yesterday for passing too many laws by the Maryland State Bar Association, in session at Cape May. A report of the committee on laws, in which the over-industry of the legislature was referred to as a matter of great concern, was read by Edward H. Hammon, the chairman, and passed by the association. which complains that "at each session of the legislature the number of laws is increasing and the serious view of the matter is that they are enacted, except in a few instances, without any demand from the public in general."

The censure passed upon the legislature of Maryland is equally applicable to other general assemblies. Laws are being multiplied all the time and their complex nature is gradually becoming a labyrinth as puzzling as that through which Theseus found himself winding on the island of Crete.

He is specifically accused of stealing from J. W. Brown, of Pittsboro, Miss., a warrant issued in his favor for $106.25. It is charged that after abstructing the paper from Brown, Bunch fled from the State.

Fears for the safety of the Cunard Line Steamship Saxonia were dissipated late yesterday, when a wireless message saying there were no bombs aboard was received in New York from her captain in answer to the warning sent out that Frank Holt had asserted that this boat and the steamship Philadelphia, of the American Line, were in danger of internal explosions. Earlier a reply had been received from the Philadelphia that no bombs were found aboard her.

The body of a man who had been shot in the head was found in a room in the American House, Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest, Washington, yesterday noon by a chambermaid. A revolver was lying near him. The man registered at the hotel Tuesday night as John Dunn, of Indian Head. A note found near him said: If anything happens to me, notify Miss Mamie Rhea, 302 Bank street, Norfolk, Va. My name is Charley Westley Turner, of the U. S. S. Baltimore. Notify my mother, Mrs. Sallie Genie, Fort Sill, Okla.

Four persons were slain—mother, two daughters and a son—near Vienna, Maries County, Mo., last week. Frey Poynter, a young farmer, is in jail, accused of the shooting. The dead are Mrs. Julia Breece, 70 years old; Mrs. Rose Breece Wright, Miss Mattie Breece and George Breece. Poynter was a tenant on the farm of Mrs. Breece. A quarrel arose over the harvesting of the wheat crop. Mrs Breece, it is alleged, fired at Poynter. He returned the fire, it is claimed, and his first shot killed Mrs. Breece. Then George Breece and his sisters were shot.

Capt. Thomas J. Davis, for 15 years superintendent of the State penitentiary farm, a veteran of the Civil War, died yesterday afternoon at his home on the farm after a long illness. He was born in Gloucester county in 1847; educated at the Virginia Military Institute, and left that institution to enlist in the Fifth Virginia Cavalry at the opening of the Civil War.

William A. Slater, 67 years old, dropped dead of heart failure Tuesday night in the Odd Fellows Hall at Harrisonburg just as he was taking the oath upon his installation as secretary of the lodge. He was a Confederate veteran, former Town Recorder and once was superintendent of the waterworks. He went to Harrisonburg 54 years ago from Louisa county.

A family feud, dating back 20 years, came near ending in a death in Page county Tuesday, when Samuel Cullers, a traveling salesman of Shenandoah county, formerly a merchant of Page county, was shot by Peter Kauffman, a farmer of Springfield district. The difficulty arose over the location of a line fence between Kauffman and Reuben Strickler, brothers-in-law. Cullers was visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Strickler, and went to Kauffman's home in order to arrange the location of the fence, which was to have been built Tuesday. He is alleged to have been cursed by Kauffman. Cullers then knocked Kauffman down with his fist. Kauffman then ran to his house, secured a shotgun and fired at Cullers, who was leaving. A part of the load took effect in Culler's back, but he was not dangerously wounded.

OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA. VIRGINIA

Elizabeth V. Fisher,
vs. IN CHANCERY
David Van R. Fisher,

Upon the written application of the complainant, made and filed in accordance with the statutes, together with the affidavits of the defendant's non-residence, the said affidavit stating the last known address of the said defendant, and it appearing from the return of the Sergeant that the said defendant is not a resident of the City of Alexandria, State of Virginia, and not within the jurisdiction of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, the Court does on this 10th day of June, 1915, enter the following order of publication against the said defendant.

MEMO: The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant an absolute divorce from the defendant on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years prior to the institution of this suit.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant do appear within fifteen days after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit; that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper printed and published in the City of Alexandria Virginia, that a copy of the said order of publication be posted at the front door of the court house on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of the same be mailed to the last known address of the defendant 1318 T Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., by the Clerk of this court, by registered mail.

CHIEF JUDGE UNDER FIRE.

Georgia Legislature to Investigate Charges Brought Against Justice Russell.

Atlanta, July 8.—Pamphlets that have flooded the Georgia Legislature for a week attacking the character of Chief Justice R. B. Russell, of the Court of Appeals, resulted yesterday in a resolution for an investigation of the charges. The charges are made by W. T. Moyers, an Atlanta attorney, who, in affidavit, accuses Justice Russell of being a petty grafter, arbitrary, unfair and of neglecting the cases that come before him.

Moyers alleges Russell played "petty politics" in getting W. E. Perry a clerical position with the Court of Appeals, and in referring to Judge Russell and Perry he speaks of "the instinctive feeling criminals have toward each other."

Attorney Moyers charges Judge Russell allowed Perry and other outsiders to influence him in his court opinions.

He says that when Miss Marion Bloodworth was Judge Russell's secretary he drew $75 of her salary from the State Treasury without her permission and "to this day she has never received a cent of that money. This, says the pamphlet, "Judge Russell might have thought a smart trick. Common people call it stealing."

Attorney Moyers charges that Perry and Judge Russell tried to collect money from Judge Roan which was not due them, and even after Judge Roan's death "tried to blackmail his widow for the money." He also charges that Charles Shelton, a young lawyer, got up Judge Russell's opinions for him one summer. "The charges are false and ridiculous," said Justice Russell. "If I answer them at all it will be in the courts."

South Carolina Resents Talk About Danger of Lynching.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 8.—Application was made to Governor Brumbaugh yesterday by Attorney General J. H. Peebles and Prosecutor Geo. Bell Timmerman, of South Carolina, for the extradition to South Carolina of Frederick Brown, charged with murder in that State.

A plea was recently made that if Brown was given up he would be in danger of lynching and the Governor declined to send Brown back at the time.

Mr. Timmerman remarked in the course of his argument that Brown was in no danger except from the electric chair or the penitentiary. He answered the charges of lawlessness by saying South Carolina was not the only State to have such experiences.

LEGAL NOTICES

IN THE CORPORATION COURT OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA VIRGINIA.

Florence Viola Reichard,
vs In Chancery
Edgar William Reichard,

Upon the written application of the complainant made and filed in accordance with the statutes, together with the affidavit of the defendant's non-residence, the said affidavit stating the last known address of the said defendent, and it appearing from the return of the Sergeant that the said defendant is not a resident of the City of Alexandria, State of Virginia and not within the jurisdiction of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandra, the Court does on this 8th day of July, 1915, enter the following order of publication against the said defendant:

MEMO: The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant an absolute divorce from the defendent on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years prior to the institution of this suit.

It is further ordered that the defendant do appear within fifteen days after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit; that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper printed and published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy of said order of publication be posted at the front door of the court house on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of the same be mailed to the last known address of the defendant, at Chicago, Illinois, (Street address unknown' employment at Soigle, Cooper and Company) by the Clerk of this Court by registered mail.

Commonwealth of Virginia. In the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria on the 6th day of July 1915.

Estelle E. Baldwin, Complainant
vs In Chancery.
Louise F. Baldwin, Defendant.

An affidavit having been duly made as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State, and the sergeant having made a return upon the original process or summons issued herein that the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against the defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit and an order of publication having been duly granted in open court, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within 15 days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit and to do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Virginia, and that a copy be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this court to the last known place of address, residence and abode of defendant, to wit: 189a Chauncey St., Brooklyn, New York as stated in the application for this order of publication which shall be certified by the clerk of this court and that a copy be posted at the front door of the court house of this court on or before the next rule day of this court.
